City Updates:

Adrian Reported:

The (2) Public Safety Officers that were on administrative leave both met with Chief. Lt. served 40-hour suspension instead of proposed termination, no appeal the other was an 80-hour suspension but revised and served a 40-hour instead. There was an arrest of a suspect that is suspected to be connected to numerous YPD cases over the years. Finance Director says it looking good for the final LMS increases to be completed in January 2024. One of our council members has been out on medical leave for an extended time. Overall, it has been a good year for the COY especially with seeing a reduction in premiums considering the current health insurance market.

Request for Future Agenda Items:
